A Voice of Hope, Healing & Purpose

Cheri Glover is a faith-centered speaker and author who empowers women, men, and college students to pursue their dreams despite obstacles — one step at a time. Her powerful message is rooted in lived experience, spiritual depth, and an unwavering belief in the resilience of the human spirit.

At the age of 27, Cheri underwent open-heart surgery, a life-altering experience that reshaped her understanding of health, healing, and purpose. That defining moment became the foundation of her work today: helping individuals and organizations move through adversity with clarity, resilience, and peace.

Through powerful storytelling, spiritual insight, and practical application, Cheri equips audiences to strengthen self-worth, protect their peace, prioritize heart health, and move forward with confidence and purpose. Her approach blends faith-based wisdom with actionable strategies that create lasting transformation.

Cheri Glover holds a Bachelor's degree from St. John's University and a Master's degree from Teachers College, Columbia University. She is currently pursuing doctoral studies at Liberty University.
